

SESSION : 1

CLASS : I

SUBJECT : ENGLISH

CHAPTER NUMBER : 10

CHAPTER NAME : AM, IS AND ARE

SUBTOPIC : RECAPITULATION OF IS, AM, ARE AND BOOK EXERCISE-
1 AND 2

CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

AM, IS AND ARE

We use ‘am’, ‘is’, ‘are’ when we want to describe someone or something or talk about somebody’s job in the present time.

AM

IS

ARE

Here, am is used with the pronoun I.

Am is always used with the pronoun I.

We use am to talk about ourselves.

Examples:

I am Rohit Kumar.

I am five years old.

I am from Karnataka

1. Answer the following questions. Begin your sentence with I am.....

(a) What is your name? I am _____.

(a) How old are you? I am _____ years old.

(a) Where are you from? I am from _____.

- 'is' -- is used with singular noun or with pronouns like she, he and it.

Examples:

Seema is smart

He is happy

An elephant is a strong animal

Bread is made from wheat

2. Rewrite the following sentences using the word is.

(a) Neha from Italy.

Neha is from Italy.

(b) Ravi very tall.

Ravi is very tall.

(c) The dog hungry.

The dog is hungry.

(d) It a beautiful place

It is a beautiful place.

(e) He my brother.

He is my brother.

(f) It a bird.

It is a bird.

LEARNING OUTCOME:

The students recapitulate the usage of am and is and do the book exercise 1 & 2.

THANKING YOU
ODM EDUCATIONAL GROUP