Once upon a time , there was a little girl named Alice. One day, she had a very curious dream. She saw a white rabbit come running in a great hurry; and just as it passed Alice, it stopped, and took its watch out of its pocket.

Wasn't that a funny thing? Have you ever seen a rabbit that had a watch, and a pocket to put it in ? Of course , when a rabbit has a watch, it must have a pocket to put it in! It would never do to carry it in its mouth! And it wants its hands sometimes, to run about with.

The rabbit had pretty pink eyes and pink ears. It was wearing a brown coat that had letters of the English alphabet on it. It also had a yellow waistcoat with a blue neck-tie. There was a red pocket-handkerchief peeping out of its coat pocket. It was very nicely dressed.

‘Oh dear , oh dear! said the Rabbit. ‘I shall be very late! It is already half past two!’
What would it be too late for, you wonder? Well, you see, it was going to visit the duchess.

The duchess was a very angry old lady. The rabbit knew she would be very angry if he kept her waiting. The poor thing was very frightened of her rage.

He was afraid the duchess would have him arrested. That was what she did when she was angry with people. At least she used to order her man to put them in prison she always thought it was done. Though they never really did it.

So, the white rabbit ran , dodging the low branches along the way. Alice wanted to see what would happen to it. So she ran after it. She ran and ran, till she tumbled right down a rabbit hole.

Down and down she fell , till she began to wonder if she was going to come out on the other side of the world!

It was just like a very deep well, but there was no water in it. However , this terrible fell came to an end at last. Down came Alice on a heap of sticks and dry leaves. The dust made her cough but she wasn't a bit hurt. So she jumped right up, and ran after the rabbit again.
