Recapitulation:

- This poem is about a girl who is a magician.
- In the first stanza she says that when she spells the magic by saying abracadabra...then magic happens all the way. Here she tries to make a bear as small as a green pear.
- In the second stanza, she tries to spell the magic to make a fearful lion sing a rhyme. She then tries to make the rabbit gets a swollen nose.

My Magic Wand

- In the fourth stanza She wishes to the animals to roam around free and wish to be able to make their life enjoyable.
- In the last stanza she does the magic and makes the animals disappear from the zoo. She spells the magic to quickly fly far away.

Poem Recitation

*Abracadabra, when I say,
Magic happens all the way.
Abracadabra! Let us make a bear,
As small as a green pear.*

Abracadabra! Now is the time

Made with KINEMASTER

To make a fearful lion sing a rhyme.

*Abracadabra! Here it goes,
The rabbit gets a swollen nose.*
