

Tenali Rama and the thives

Date _____

Page _____

① Answer the following questions.

② Who was Tenali?

Ans Tenali was a witty courtier in the court of King Krishna Deva Raya of Vijayanagara.

③ Why did the king like him?

Ans The king like him because of his wit, humour and intelligence. He solved every problem that came his way and helped the king with his skills.

④ Why did everyone warn him to be careful?

Ans Everyone warned him to be careful because the gifts would definitely attract by the thives and robbers were active in the neighbouring villages.

② Reference to context -

"Yes, that was a brilliant plan."

Q Who is the speaker?

Ans Jinali Rama's wife is the speaker of the above line.

Q Which idea the speaker is talking about?

Ans The idea which the speaker is talking about is:

A. Jinali Rama went into his house and ~~so~~ shouted loudly to his wife that a gang of thieves had entered in our neighbourhood. So, they would keep all their valuable gifts of gold and silver ~~in this~~ given by the king are safe in the trunk inside the well. Nobody can even guess where hidden our possessions.

3 Fill in the missing letters.

a R u s j y j N y

b s j e a y j h j z y

c e x h a u s j e d

d p u j j e e d

4 Rearrange the letters.

a dedalp - pleaded b smaroutted - Ditzmarted

c Blorizer - Robberies

d Itlingre - Rustling

e Tempreded - pretended

2ff Name the lesson?

(Ans) Name of the lesson is Tenali Rama and the thieves